UCF MUSIC

UCF MUSIC AT A GLANCE

The UCF Department of Music is a dynamic, rapidly expanding music program at the third-largest university in the nation. The Music Department has 336 music majors and 24 full-time faculty. It is also the first music program in Florida designated as an All-Steinway Piano School. The department offers the Bachelor of Music in Performance, Bachelor of Music Education, Bachelor of Arts in Music, Bachelor of Music in Jazz Studies, Bachelor of Music in Composition and Master of Arts in Music degrees. Music Department faculty and students present more than 150 concerts annually. These performances take place not only on the UCF campus, but also regionally, nationally and internationally. The Rehearsal Hall, the venue for many on-campus Music Department concerts and recitals was recently renovated for enhanced acoustics and ambience.

CONCERTS

Most UCF Music Department concerts are free of charge; a few concerts charge admission to defray production costs or costs for guest artists. If you are not on our mailing list and would like to receive information about concerts and other events, please contact the UCF Music Department at 407-823-2869.

Come to the UCF campus in East Orlando to hear some of the finest music available in Central Florida. Visit our website at music.ucf.edu for up-to-date information on upcoming concerts.

—Artist's Biography—

Grigorios Zamparas has received critical acclaim for his versatile performing career as recitalist, orchestra soloist and chamber musician in Greece, Bulgaria, Yugoslavia, Russia, Latin America and the US. He is a frequent guest at numerous festivals worldwide, having performed several times at the prestigious Newport Music Festival, the Artist Series of Sarasota, the Salon of the Arts (Sofia, Bulgaria), among others. He has been featured as a soloist in more than twenty different piano concerti with orchestras in the US and Europe. Since 1993, he has been a guest artist at the Portoheli International Summer Festival in Portoheli, Greece, where he has performed more than 200 works. His latest commercial recording, The Youthful Beethoven with the Bohuslav Martinu Philharmonic Orchestra conducted by Jon C. Mitchell, has been released by Centaur Records (CRC 2725). Future engagements include a recording of Anton Rubinstein's piano concerti on the same label.

Dr. Zamparas is Assistant Professor of Music at the University of Tampa, where he oversees the piano program. He is also the pianist with the Quartet de Minaret, a chamber music ensemble in residence at the university. He began studying music at the age of seven in Greece, where he received his first piano degree in 1995, studying with the distinguished Greek pedagogue Yorgos Manassis. Mr. Zamparas holds a Doctor of Musical Arts degree from the University of Miami where he studied with pianist Ivan Davis. Mr. Zamparas also holds degrees from Indiana University (MM), University of Indianapolis (BM), and the Aristotle University of Thessalonica, Greece. His teachers have also included Prof. Evelyne Brancart and Dr. Richard Ratliff.
