GRIGORIOS ZAMPARAS, PIANIST

Grigorios Zamparas has received critical acclaim for his versatile performing career as recitalist, orchestra soloist and chamber musician in Greece, Bulgaria, Yugoslavia, Russia, Latin America and the USA. He is a frequent guest at numerous festivals worldwide, having performed several times at the prestigious Newport Music Festival, the Artist Series of Sarasota, the Salon of the Arts (Sofia, Bulgaria), and the Mainly Mozart Festival among others. In 2009 he performed with the Swiss Wind Quintet on the opening concert of their first American tour in fifteen years. He has been featured as a soloist in more than twenty different piano concerti with orchestras in the U.S. and Europe. Since 1993 he has been a guest artist at the Portoheli International Summer Festival in Portoheli, Greece, where he has performed more than 200 works. His recording, The Youthful Beethoven with the Bohuslav Martinç Philharmonic Orchestra conducted by Jon C. Mitchell, was released by Centaur Records (CRC 2725) and followed by a recording of Anton Rubinstein's piano concerti on the same label.

Dr. Zamparas is Assistant Professor of Music at the University of Tampa, where he oversees the piano program. He is also the pianist with the Quartet de Minaret, a faculty chamber music ensemble at the university. He began studying music at the age of seven in Greece, where he received his first piano degree in 1995, studying with the distinguished Greek pedagogue Yorgos Manassis. Mr. Zamparas holds a Doctor of Musical Arts degree from the University of Miami where he studied with pianist Ivan Davis. Mr. Zamparas also holds degrees from Indiana University (MM), University of Indianapolis (BM), and the Aristotle University of Thessalonica, Greece. His teachers have also included Prof. Evelyne Brancart and Dr. Richard Ratliff.
