YBOR CITY - The annual Lois Golding Memorial Benefit Concert Teacher Showcase Recital, sponsored by the Mid-State Music Teachers Association, will highlight musical genres ranging from classical to popular beginning at 4 p.m. April 26, on the main stage of the Performing Arts Building at the Hillsborough Community College Ybor Campus, 1304 11th Avenue. .

Performing will be some of the area's best musicians who also teach. Among them will be Grigorios Zamparas, pianist and assistant professor of the University of Tampa, who recently performed an inspiring rendition of Wolfgang Amadeus Mozart's "Quintet for Piano and Winds in E-flat major" with the Swiss Wind Quintet.

Cellist Carlos Audi of Brandon will play, accompanied by Ken Hanks, pianist. A clavino ensemble of Virginia Grissom, Helen Morrison, Angela Miller and Theo Boylan will perform on individual Yamaha Clavinova digital pianos provided by Piano Distributors.

Proceeds will benefit the Lois Golding Scholarship Fund "to provide ongoing teacher education scholarships," Boylan said. Golding, a former piano professor at the University of South Florida, was devoted to her students, several of whom became members of the Mid-State Music Teachers Association, Boylan said.

The association provides professional support for music teachers and their students and helps people find qualified teachers. It includes teachers from the University of Tampa, Hillsborough Community College, Hillsborough County schools and private studios in the Tampa Bay area, including Valrico, Brandon, Seffner, Mango, Sun City Center, Wesley Chapel, Land O'Lakes and Carrollwood.

Tickets can be purchased for $5 at the door or from any Mid-State Music Teachers Association member. The names and contact information for members is located at www.midstate.mta.org.

Thespians present '(non) Musical'

PLANT CITY - The Durant High School Drama Department, under the direction of teacher Ed Mason, will present "High School (non) Musical," by Jonathan Dorf at 7 p.m. Thursday through Saturday in the school auditorium, 4748 Cougar Path. The play parodies Disney's "High School Musical."

"If you know 'High School Musical,'" said Mason, "you will get a real kick out of 'High School (non) Musical.'"
